Advance Specialist GS-0301-13

Introduction

This position is located in the Operations Staff within the Immediate Office of the Office of the Administrator. As an Advance Specialist the incumbent is part of the Scheduling and Advance Team and has responsibility for providing advice and oversight in the area of advance, event production and management logistical support for national and international conferences and meetings involving the Administrator.

The proposed incumbent of the position requested for Schedule C exception will not be able to adequately perform his/her duties without being privy to the political, personal, and management philosophies of the Administrator. A confidential relationship of a Schedule C nature is imperative since the incumbent will speak for the Administrator and as such, will be expected to reflect his/ her philosophies in conversation with leading figures of government, business and other groups. The incumbent will also be obliged to present the views of the Administrator in correspondence and other communications with Agency managers and program officials.

Major Duties and Responsibilities

1. Provides advice and support to the Director of Scheduling and Advance by serving as a technical expert in coordinating the strategic schedule of the Administrator with the Office of the Administrator, the Office of Public Affairs, and the Office of Policy. The position develops detailed plans, goals, and objectives for the implementation and administration of the work. Gathers information, identifies and analyzes issues, and develops recommendations to resolve substantive problems of effectiveness and efficiency of work operations. The position uses qualitative and quantitative analytical techniques that frequently require modification to fit a wider range of variables. The position refines existing work methods and techniques for application to the analysis of specific issues and resolution of administrative problems.
2. Provides support in the arrangements of trips, including all planning and advance arrangements, review of invitations, selection of speaking forums, and, in coordination with the Multi-Media Operations and Services Staff and other offices; arranges for press conferences, television and other media appearances. This involves dealing with high ranking officials of the Agency, Congress, the White House, other Federal departments and agencies, State and local governments, scientific and research groups and associations, industry, public interest groups, foreign governments and the media.
3. Responsible for coordinating scheduling activities with the Director of Scheduling and Advance or assigned staff. The incumbent meets with key officials to ensure all logistical matters are arranged. Plans, evaluates, coordinates, and integrates activities with other applicable staff elements and functions. As a result of these briefings, provides substantive briefing materials for the Administrator concerning Agency, political, and other issues. Incumbent keeps alert and informed on all pertinent proposals, policies, etc.; and must anticipate which issues may be particularly controversial to ensure that the Administrator has the necessary background information prior to conferences/meetings. Maintains an understanding of program goals and objectives, the sequence and timing of key program events and milestones of the mission of the organization and other related programs.

4. Applies a wide range of analytical and evaluative methods and techniques sufficient to make recommendations to the Director of Scheduling and Advance, the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations and senior staff and managers regarding Office and Agency operations. This includes preparing project papers, staff reports, and oral briefings to encourage understanding and acceptance of findings and recommendations.
5. May gather and evaluate programmatic data to develop complete decision packages, staff studies, recommendations, and special reports and prepares executive briefings and similar materials for use by management. Collects, evaluates, and develops executive summaries, metric data, performance plan data, and annual report data for assigned areas. Utilizes expert application of qualitative and quantitative methods for the assessment and improvement of program effectiveness. Identifies meaningful performance indicators, quality levels and determines accurate measurement techniques. Prepares presentations and briefings on studies/analyses/evaluation results, in support of the overall program requirements, as assigned. Prepares, presents, and defends data developed for this purpose.
6. Participates in top-level planning and policy discussions with the Director of Scheduling and Advance, the Deputy Chiefs of Staff to the Administrator, as well as key Agency officials on matters relating to the Agency as a means to following-up on decisions or requests for meetings or further action on appropriate issues.
7. Provides assistance in the planning and coordination of the Administrator's schedule, including all meetings, conferences and travel. This involves contact with key program officials in the Agency, as well as throughout the Executive and Legislative Branches of Government, public interest groups, etc.
8. Works with representatives of other Federal Agencies, State and local governments and private sector groups to ensure that coordination and logistical support is provided in meetings, conferences and appearances involving the Administrator with entities outside of the Agency.
9. Performs other duties of a strictly confidential nature, as assigned.

Requires the application of qualitative and quantitative analytical techniques that frequently require modification to fit a wider range of variables. Refines existing work methods and techniques for application to the analysis of specific issues and resolution of administrative problems.

Factor 5 - Scope and Effect*Level 5-5 (325 points)

The purpose of the work is to analyze and evaluate major administrative aspects of the work of the Operations Staff and issues relating to advance work and scheduling. The position provides administrative support to the Director of Scheduling and Advance, the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, and the Administrator. Work involves providing expert administrative guidance and the leadership necessary to resolve matters which are very complex or controversial, or which set general precedent. Work involves delicate coordination to resolve problems impacting the accomplishment of principal program goals and objectives which are complicated by differing priorities for contacts across government. The position is seen as an Agency expert in advance work.

Factors 6/7 - Personal Contacts/Purpose of Contacts*Levels 3C (180 points)

Personal contacts include staff and management internal and external to the Agency such as, high ranking officials of the Agency, Congress, the White House, other Federal departments and agencies, State and local governments, scientific and research groups and associations, industry, public interest groups, foreign governments and the media in a moderately unstructured setting.

The purpose of the contacts is to gather information, provide or request advice and guidance on plans/proposals, interpret policy/regulations or present controversial observations, findings or recommendations. Contacts often require persuasion and diplomacy in order to reach agreement and resolution.

Factor 8 - Physical Demands*Level 8-1 (5 points)

The work is primarily sedentary. There may be some walking, standing, bending and carrying light items, and may involve travel to other locations. No special physical demands are involved in performing the work.

Factor 9 - Work Environment*Level 9-1 (5 points)

The work environment involves everyday risks or discomforts requiring normal safety precautions typical of office settings. The work area is adequately lighted, heated and ventilated.
